Objections

SB 270 was passed into law in November 2017 following a referendum and took effect immediately. (Pub. Res. Code §§ 42280-88.) It establishes requirements that reusable grocery bag producers must satisfy to be permitted to sell or distribute reusable grocery bags in California.

CalRecycle is required to publish a list on its website that includes the name, location, and appropriate contact information of certified reusable grocery bag producers, and the reusable grocery bags that such producers are selling or distributing. (Pub. Res. Code § 42282(e).) CalRecycle has published the list at <https://www2.calrecycle.ca.gov/ReusableBags/>.

Annexes A and B are compliance checklists of the certification and documentation packages submitted to CalRecycle for film plastic and non-film reusable bag producers, respectively. Annex C is blank checklist forms used to assess all reusable bag producer applications in accordance with the requirements of SB 270.

All certifications and documents submitted to CalRecycle by producers were obtained through Public Records Act requests submitted to CalRecycle. The certifications and documents that we received from CalRecycle are current as of December 19, 2017.

SB 270 states: “A person may object to the certification of a reusable grocery bag producer pursuant to this section by filing an action for review of that certification in the superior court of a county that has jurisdiction over the reusable grocery bag producer. The court shall determine if the reusable grocery bag producer is in compliance with [SB 270].” (Pub. Res. Code § 42282(f)(1).)

Pursuant to § 42282(f)(1), the Coalition to Enforce SB 270 objects to the certification of all reusable bag producers and their bags listed on the CalRecycle website that have not complied with the SB 270 requirements, as shown on the compliance checklists in Annexes A and B. Those producers and their bags are listed below in the section entitled: “Reusable bag producers and bags that have not complied with the SB 270 requirements.”
